

Ayde Haggins is Chef and Owner of Mistura Restaurant in White Plains, NY. Originally from Peru, Ayde has been a resident of Westchester County for over 20 years. Before opening her own restaurant, Ayde worked in various fields, including banquets, catering for private events, as a personal chef, as well as Chef for various hospitals. Mistura features traditional and Peruvian fusion dishes, as well as American food. Ayde has always been passionate about food and discovering new ingredients to perfect her dishes. It is a great pride for Ayde to introduce some of Peru's culinary wealth!

The YWCA offers high-quality diverse early care and education programs that create a strong foundation for life-long learning. The emphasis on an anti-bias curriculum helps children explore similarities and differences, which broaden understanding and celebrate the richness of diversity.

