

A penny for your thoughts about WHAT MATTERS!

Have you seen the What Matters mural in Peekskill, New York? The best viewing spot is 1045 Park Street, next to C-Town. This mural was conceived by Lana Yu, who guided 88 people ages 4 to 80+ to create it. The phrases on the mural are a selection of responses from hundreds of people from diverse backgrounds and ages.

Now, you can see the mural and experience a special live event!

Saturday, November 12, 2016
11am to 3pm

Marcy B. Freedman presents a one-on-one, face-to-face interactive performance in front of the What Matters mural.

FREE and open to the public!

This opportunity for expression continues the "What Matters?" process, an ongoing, socially-engaged art project initiated by artist, Lana Yu. This project invites people of all ages and backgrounds to explore what matters and share their thoughts with the public to engage in a dialogue. Learn more about "What Matters?" at lanayu.net

This project is partially funded by the National Endowment for the Arts under the fiscal sponsorship of the Hudson Valley Center for Contemporary Art.
